Disclaimer

Nasatech Pty Ltd ensures the implementation of proper data protection processes to align and comply with POPI Act.

Online Privacy Statement

Your right to privacy and data security is our primary concern. We want you to feel comfortable visiting our site. By accessing or using the website, you agree to our terms as aligned with the regulations of POPI and GDPR.

Personal Data

This website provides you with a form whereby you may enter personal information about yourself. It is completely optional for you to engage in these activities. We need your personal information only to process your inquiry correctly. All data will be treated confidentially and would not be shared with third parties.

Security

We recognise that your privacy and security are of the utmost importance and have devoted a great deal of effort to ensure that your personal information is safeguarded. To secure highest security standards, we use technical and organizational security measures. Our security measures are continually updated as new technology becomes available. This may cause changes for example the use of cookies.

Links

We are not responsible for the contents of any linked site, or any link contained in a linked site. The hypertext links provided herein are meant only as a convenience and the inclusion of any link does not imply endorsement by or of the referenced site.

Data Processing Terms

We act as a processor on behalf of its customers as data controllers. We have a POPI Policy that provides insight to the Data Processing Terms and Conditions.

How We Use Cookies

A cookie is a small file that asks permission to be placed on your computer's hard drive. Once you agree, the file is added, and the cookie helps analyse web traffic or lets you know when you visit a particular site. Cookies allow web applications to respond to you as an individual. The web application can tailor its operations to your needs, likes and dislikes by gathering and remembering information about your preferences. We use traffic log cookies to identify which pages are being used. This helps us analyse data about webpage traffic and improve our website by tailoring it to our customers' needs. We only use this information for statistical analyses, whereafter the data is removed from our system. Overall, cookies help us to provide you with a better website, by enabling us to monitor which pages you find useful and which you do not. A cookie in no way gives us access to your computer or any information about you, other than the data you choose to share with us. You can choose to accept or decline cookies. Most web browsers automatically accept cookies, but you can usually modify your browser setting to decline cookies if you prefer. This may prevent you from taking full advantage of the website.
